Hearing to Detail Plans for 10,000 New Housing Units for Homeless People Who Suffer From Mental Illness

A hearing to announce final details of a statewide plan to provide housing for homeless people who suffer from mental illness will run from 1 to 3:15 p.m. Thursday at the Cal Expo Courtyard Marriott, 1780 Tribute Road.

The plan, presented to the California Mental Health Services Oversight and Accountability Commission, will use $75 million annually from Proposition 63 monies to create 10,000 new housing units statewide. Another $40 million annually will subsidize rental housing.
